

I see no need to change or alter Wisconsin's DO NOT CALL Law as it is working as expected and as proposed to the residents of our State. There is no need for the banking industry to seek a federal override to this legislation and no reason for federal interference.